of our countrymen, patriotic and able, were not just exactly clear as to where their interests lay. There was one party who said that the only way back to prosperity, back to the nigher class, lies in the opening of the doors to the free and annlimited coinage of silver. There were, others who believed with william McKimley that the true way back to national prosperity was their holding open the doors to the factories of the Republicans. The people at the tally box expressed their judgment in favor of the wisdom of the policy of William McKinley, and when he came into power, pleuged to restore policies which would restore prosperity, he went about the great work in a patriotic and wise way. Prosperity is not the fruit of accident; it does not come as a mere child of chance; it comes to and in pursuance of wise and national policies. Was President McKinley or congress aftaid of the protective tariff? He believed that the Democratic free trade policy was the parent of our disorder. Therefore congress was convended in exstore policies which would restore prosperity, he went about the great work in a patriotic and wise way. Prosperity is not the fruit of accident; it does not come as a mere child of chance; it comes to and in pursuance of wise and national policies. Was Président McKinley or constress afraid of the protective tariff? He believed that the Democratic free trade holicy was the parent of our disorder. Therefore congress was convenied in extraordinary session as soon as it could be called together. After he had taken the oath of his high office, it was on the lath of March. 187, that congress convened. It addressed itself to this great people on one wheel. You want a Republican house of representatives. You don't want to run the mighty will be public interests a great wrong was righted. For four and a half menths of debate after all of the great interests of the country were considered, after the agricultural interests of the country were considered, after the agricultural interests of the sheep industry in Utah was considered, after the agricultural interests of the sheep industry in the was considered, after the stock raising interests were considered, and like the interests of the sheep industry in which the activities of these pecule have been engaged were considered, and like he interests of all sections of our wise the interests of the sheep industry in which the activities of these pecule have been engaged were considered, and like he interests of all sections of our wise the interests of all sections of our wise the interests of the sheep industry in the interests of the sheep industry in which the activities of these pecule have been engaged were considered, and like he interests of all sections of our splendid career. received a royal welcome, for the president knew what was in it; he knew the inspiration that it contained to American industries. He realized that its passage meant to spread about the American people again the bow of hope, so he put upon twe tariff the best guaranty of this nation that ever went unon a tariff measure since the Republican administration; he put upon it the signature of William McKinley, the president of the United States. And what was the effect? The effect was winessed instantaneously by all sections of our common country. Prosperity came up to the great industrial centers; it came to the mining centers; in short, under the inspiration of that great Republican policy endless opportunities were opened for workingmen who for years had marched from one end of the republic to the other in the futile hope of finding work. They were put to work, they were put upon the payroll, and from that time to this they have been singing the praises of the Republican policies and raising high in their hearts an acclaim for the names of William McKinley and Theodore Roosevelt.

Roast For Democrats.
"I hold to the opinion that when the Democratic party declares the tariff to be robbery, that we should not entrust to that party the responsibilities of the national government. They say that while we regard the tariff as the existing law, he harm can come under the substantial interests of the party because there is a keepublican senate which will stand between the Democratic administration and harm to the great interests of the American people. I do not believe that is a wise way to consider the great questions of our national welfare. I think we ought to rely on a Republican senate, we might make assurance doubly sure as going a little further. My Dear Aunt Kate: I must tell you the good news. Right after receiving your letter, the day before New Year's I started in with new resolu-New Year's I started in with new resolu-tions on the first of the year. I wrote to Dr. R. V. Pierce, at Buffalo, N. Y., as you requested me to do. I gave him all my symptoms, which were that I was tired— so tired—all the time and did not care to go anywhere, depressed and sad, and all autibition gone, backache and a dragged-out feeling, could not sleep, limbs feeling sore and aching. I followed the doctor's advice, which he went to considerable pains to make plain to me—to rest every day—a nap make plain to me-to rest every day-a nap make plain to me—to rest every day—a nap after lunch—complete relaxation—cultivate repose of mind, try not to worry, get as much outdoor air as possible, and practice leng, deep breathing, expanding the lungs. Then for a uterine tonic, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, coupled with a wash he told me of. I must say that after following his advice for four months I feel perfectly cured and like a new woman.

trade under the inspiration of these Republican policies and Republican administration has attailed enormous proportions. It has reach a magnitude that we cannot comprehend. We protect our own market for the benefit of our own producers. It would be little, my fellow effizens, if they should make these great fields far richer 'than they are today, if you found no market for the product it would matter little to you even though you should produce abundantly if there should be a market at inadequate prices. This is a trade of the Republican party and stand-by of the American people in order that you people of our American government may have the first opportunity to supply this market. This doctrine does not care to be under any unfriendliness to people. We like them, we wish them to prosper, but the Republican party believes that it is sound American doctrine. Diplomacy of Republicans.

"Why fellow citizens? Why? We have always been great in material resources. Our standing in the front rank of the nations of the earth is not due alone to our best material wealth and material strength. If we were, there would be less cause for congratulation. But the truth is that the Republican party has taken foremost places among the leading nations of the earth through its diplomatic policy. It holds a higher rank in the international courts than ever before, because its diplomacy is greater. There are many other questions, my fellow citizens, that I would like to discuss with you, but I am desirous that I shall meet some others of the good people of Utah, who are unable to find their way into this structure. It is a gratifying thing to see, as I go through the country, the fine flames of patriotism flaming high, and you have got to meet the Republican hosts in installments. The Republican hosts in installments. The Republican host in installments for those who disagree with me. None whatever. We are all desirous of promoting our country's welfare. We differ only as to means; that is all. I believe the American people are proud of their country, and anxious for its highest and best development, and that all are easer to advance it in the best ways possible. The Democratic party is wrong, but we are not both wrong. Fellow citizens, in the presence of these great overmastering questions—questions which involve the destiny of $0.000.000 of peopleiet all personal taste be lost forever in the boundless ocean of oblivion.

"I want, my friends, in conclusion, to ask you, or before I conclude I wish to suggest that you have a rate treat before you. As I leave your platform there will be upon it my beloved colleague. TALKS AT BRIGHAM. Fairbanks Makes Colorless Speech at

This Place.

(Special to The Herald.) Brigham City, Utah, Oct. 7,-Senator Fairbanks spoke here at 9 o'clock today. He come up from Ogden in his special train after remaining at that place all night. The meeting was held in the opera house and all the distinguished men mentioned occupied seats on the stage, Senator Fairbanks being flanked on the right side by Senator Smoot and on the left by Senator Dolliver, while immediately on Dol liver's left was Senator Kearns. The attendance was not large. Senator Fairbanks made an appeal for the sup-port of the Republican ticket, contend-ing that only by keeping that party in power could the highest degree of pros-perity be maintained. He made no reference to the differences existing among Republicans in this state and he also failed to refer to the question

The senator's speech here was cordially applauded as were the speeches of Mr. Smith and Senator Dolliver who followed in the order. Congressman W. S. Smith of Iowa, said there is trustworthy assurance that the Democratic party has really permently returned to sanity as claimed for it. He made a plea for the re-election of Congressman Howell, who is a candidate on the regular ticket. Senator Dolliver referred in his speech to the fact that female suffrage prevails in this state.

"For my part," he said, "I think the Republican party has everything to gain and nothing to lose by the system. I trust the intuitive sense of the women to catch and appreciate the wispolicies make for the improvement of the home as no other policies can.' The party left here at 9:45 a. m. for Farmington and Salt Lake City. As Senator Fairbanks' special train vas preparing to pull out of Brigham City a number of young women em-ployes of an adjacent tomato cannery ame up to shake hands with Senator Fairbanks.

'How many of you can vote?' asked Senator Dolliver. Only one confessed that she was old nough to exercise the franchis "Be sure you vote the Republican ticket," said the senator. "You can bet your life on that," was the reply as the train left the station.

Speech at Farmington. Farmington, Oct. 7.-At Farmington senators Fairbanks and Dolliver made brief speeches from the rear platform of the Edgemere and Senator Fairbanks shook hands with the people there congregated. In his speech at that point Mr. Fairbanks spoke of the facility of the Republican party for government, saying that it amounts to genius while he claimed that on the other hand the Democratic party is absolutely deficient in this respect. He urged the people of Utah to stand by the party capable of best handling the affairs of the government, saying that ise policies must benefit all sections alike, while poor government must be equally hurtful to all.
